

Accommodation

Wildtracks Lodge offers fully-serviced, self-catering accommodation. This means that although guests bring their own food and drinks, meals can be prepared by the Wildtracks staff. For lodge guests, all cutlery, crockery and kitchen facilities are provided. Chalets and tents are serviced daily and all linen is provided. Lodge guests have full access to all facilities in the main lodge area. Fridge space is available on the boma for chalet guests to keep their drinks cold. Tea and coffee are always available on the boma.

All lodge accommodation is booked and charged per unit (chalet/tent) per night. We have a single tier pricing system and affordable rates are calculated to suit the domestic and regional market. Please note, as per Ministry of Tourism and Arts, there is a 10% service charge and 1.5% tourism levy that will be added to your bill.

Chalets and tents

We have two large chalets, subdivided into smaller units. In the two chalets there are four double rooms en suite and four twin rooms en suite. K1320 per unit per night.

Take two rooms as a four sleeper family unit for K2400 per night.

Carmine, Malachite, Fish Eagle & Hornbill – In addition to the en suite accommodations, we offer four dorm style meru tents that can sleep four people, serviced by an ablution block within the lodge grounds.

K300 per person per night *bedding not included

We also have a luxury en suite tented chalet, set in a secluded part of the property; this venue offers a bit more privacy. It is aptly name "Bushbuck" after the often solitary and shy antelope commonly found in the Zambezi valley. K1350 per unit per night

Whole lodge rates –

For large group and block bookings, Wildtracks can accommodate 34 people comfortably. We charge K9650 per night for exclusive use of facilities and accommodation in the chalets *up to 18 guests accommodated in the chalets.

Additional guests within your party can book a dorm tents at our normal rates.

Please note that parties of 16 or more may not book on a self-catering basis. Our catered package costs K350 per person and includes 3 meals per day.
